Title: Der Garten-Ameisen-Mauer-Tannenwald-Wacholder-Moor-Wollgras-Krummbirke-Fliegenpilz-Malerinnen-Weg

I took the windows/viewpoints that Peter made within his path up the hill ("Spor"), as the occasion to do a sort of documentation about it.

Ten pictures, containing nine places plus the garden where the exhibition took place. The pictures are made in a kind of childish manner and more or less stupid approach, of showing things, that you wouldn't see under normal circumstances. I printed them out at the local library and mounted them, wildly spread over the garden, on trees and plants.
